In a tribute to the enduring legacy of Scottish yellowware, Scotia stands as a testament to the centuries old ceramic tradition that has found its way to contemporary dining.

Crafted with dedication to both aesthetics and sustainability, this collection is made from yellow Ecogres, presenting a curated selection of dinnerware, finished in a transparent and highly resistant glossy glaze.

Scotia has been meticulously crafted for visionary chefs and restaurateurs who aspire to create culinary experiences that seamlessly blend tradition and innovation, all while embracing a profound respect for nature.
